

HIOB LUDOLF ZENTRUM FÜR ÄTHIOPISTIK

HIOB LUDOLF CENTRE FOR ETHIOPIAN STUDIES

COMST

Comparative Oriental Manuscript Studies

The cooperative network Comparative Oriental Manuscript Studies is born from the European Research Foundation Research Networking programme of the same name. Funded during the years 2009-2014, it aimed at facilitating cross-cultural academic dialogue and active exchange in the field of Oriental manuscript studies with the focus on the Mediterranean and North African cultural areas.

Chair:

Alessandro Bausi, Prof. Dr., HLCES

Coordinator:

Eugenia Sokolinski, MA, HLCES

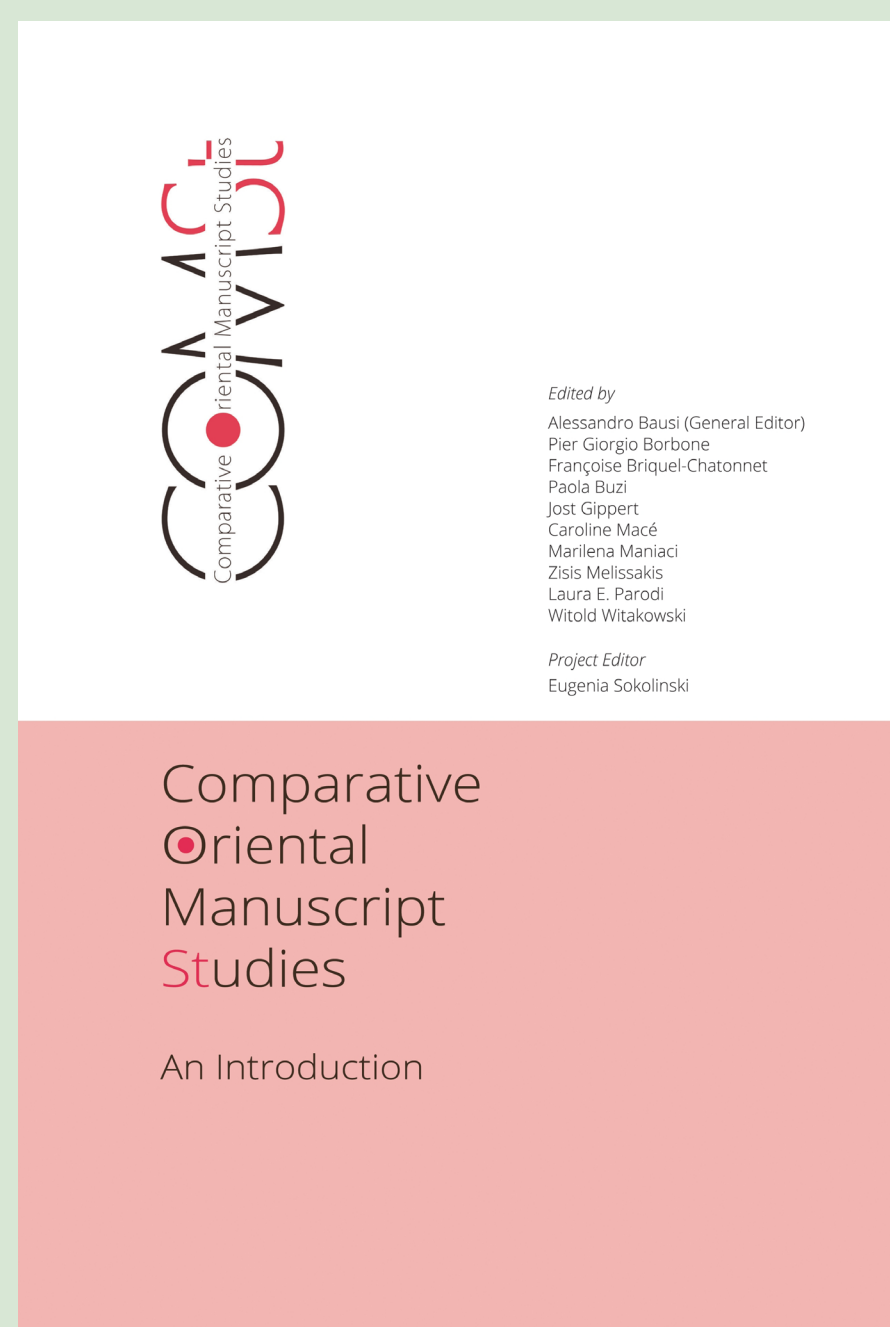

Steering Committee 2009-2014:

Ewa Balicka-Witakowska, Sweden
Malachi Beit-Arié, Israel
Pier Giorgio Borbone, Italy
Françoise Briquel-Chatonnet, France
Zuzana Gazáková, Slovakia
Charles Genequand, Switzerland
Antonia Giannouli, Cyprus
Ingvild Gilhus, Norway
Caroline Macé, Belgium
Zisis Melissakis, Greece
Stig Rasmussen, Denmark
Jan-Just Witkam, Netherlands

Anschrift:

Comparative Oriental Manuscript Studies
Hiob Ludolf Zentrum für Äthiopistik
Universität Hamburg
Alsterterrasse 1
20354 Hamburg

www1.uni-hamburg.de/COMST

Following the decision of the Steering Committee and associated scholars, the Network has decided to continue its activities also after the completion of the ESF Research Networking Programme.

Since 2015, the COMSt network is affiliated to the Centre for the Study of Manuscript Cultures at Universität Hamburg. The Comparative Oriental Manuscript Studies Bulletin is a peer-reviewed biannual open access journal.