Important Notes

- At the end of the course, a written exam will be conducted in each course. Apart from classroom teaching the intensive course also includes and encourages extracurricular language and culture related activities. Upon successful exam, ten credit points will be awarded in each course.

- We reserve the right to split a class into two groups - A and B - according to the level and number of participants, if required.
- The decision of accepting or rejecting the application of a participant solely lies with the organizer(s).
- Since more and more participants from non-German-speaking countries are showing their deep interest in our Hindi Intensive Courses, we reserve the right to hold the classes in English, if needed.
- The minimum required number of participants for a course is 10 and the maximum number of participants in each class preferably shall not exceed 16 persons.
- As the course will be held in hybrid mode the zoom link will be shared with the participant only after a successful registration.

Teaching Material

For both the intermediate and advanced-level courses, we mainly use our own teaching materials that will be distributed in the classes on the first day and during the classes. Teaching material for readings tasks and analysis consists of excerpts from novels, newspapers, magazines, and short stories.
