

2023 International Conference on Multiculture and Education

- Theme: Transnational Migration and Intercultural Communication
- Time: July 19-20 (Wed-Thu), 2023
- Venue: Goethe University Frankfurt, Frankfurt am Main, Germany
- Host: Convergence Institute for Multicultural Studies (CIMS) & BK21 FOUR Research Division for Glocal Multiculture Education, Inha University, Korea
Korean Studies, Goethe University Frankfurt, Germany
- Co-Host: Konan University, Japan,
University of Hamburg, Germany
Institute of Humanities and Social Sciences, Honam University, Korea
University of Central Lancashire, United Kingdom
- Sponsor: National Research Foundation of Korea, Goethe University Frankfurt, Inha University
- Program

1st Day (July 19th, 2023)

Time	Contents
12:30-13:00	Registration
13:00-13:20	Moderator: Ruixin Wei (Goethe University Frankfurt, Germany) Opening Ceremony - Remarks by Prof. Youngsoon Kim (Inha University, Korea) - Remarks by Prof. Yonson Ahn (Goethe University Frankfurt, Germany) - Remarks by Prof. Yvonne Schulz Zinda (University of Hamburg, Germany)
13:20-14:00	Keynote Speech Prof. Yonson Ahn (Goethe University Frankfurt, Germany) Korean Migration in the Global South, focusing on South Africa
14:10-14:20	Photo
14:20-14:30	Break
14:30-15:45	Session 1 – “Narrative, Identity, and Literacy in Transnational Migration” Chair: Prof. Jihye Kim (University of Central Lancashire, UK)

14:30-14:50	Sooan Choi & Prof. Youngsoon Kim (Inha University, Korea) A Narrative on Becoming a Minority of Marriage Immigrant Women - Focusing on the Experience of Participating in Self-Help Groups
14:50-15:10	Ruixin Wei (Goethe University Frankfurt, Germany) Identity Grafting for Inter-ethnic Communication: The Managing of Ethnic Distinctions among Korean Chinese Students on a Multi-ethnic Campus
15:10-15:30	Dr. Hyun Bum Ko (Honam University, Korea) The Philosophical Meaning of Intercultural Communication in terms of Critical Literacy
15:30-15:45	Discussion
15:45-16:00	Break
16:00-17:40	Session 2 – “Intercultural Communication in History” Chair: Prof. Yonson Ahn (Goethe University Frankfurt, Germany)
16:00-16:20	Prof. Taeho Kim (Konan University, Japan) Cultural Exchange between Korea and Japan in Ancient Times
16:20-16:40	Katharina Süberkrüb (University of Hamburg, Germany) Korean and European perspectives on 19th century Chosŏn culture: Kyŏngdo chapchi versus ethnographic collections
16:40-17:40	General Discussion & Closing Session
17:40-19:00	Dinner & Fellowship
	End of the 1st Day Conference

2nd Day (July 20th, 2023)

Time	Contents
08:30-09:00	Registration
09:00-09:40	Keynote Speech Prof. Seon-Jung Kim (Keimyung University, Korea) Korean Language Education for Multicultural Families: Focusing on Current Status and Issues
09:40-10:55	Session 3 – “Intercultural Education in Language and Culture” Chair: Prof. Youngsoon Kim (Inha University, Korea)
09:40-10:00	Hui-Jin Mun & Prof. Hyun-Sik Choi (Inha University, Korea) A Study on Korean Culture Education Using Modern Fiction: Focusing on Choi Eun-young's Short-Stories
10:00-10:20	Dr. Young Yun (Honam University, Korea)

	A Study on the Educational Method of Korean Folktales Based on Interculturalism
10:20-10:35	Discussion
10:35-10:50	Break
10:50-12:30	Session 4 – “Intercultural Communication in Business” Chair: Prof. Seon-Jung Kim (Keimyung University, Korea)
10:50-11:10	Prof. Jihye Kim (University of Central Lancashire, UK) Hallyu and Immigrant Entrepreneurship: Korean Restaurant Businesses in Frankfurt
11:10-11:30	Dr. Jingeum Lee (Goethe University Frankfurt, Germany) Intercultural Business Communication in Korean Companies near Frankfurt am Main
11:30-11:50	Dr. Joohyun Justine Park (Goethe University Frankfurt, Germany) Social Anchoring: Adaptation and Future Mobility of Foreign Skilled Professionals in Korea
11:50-12:30	General Discussion & Closing Ceremony
12:30-14:00	Lunch & Fellowship
	End of the 2nd Day Conference