

Universität Hamburg

DER FORSCHUNG | DER LEHRE | DER BILDUNG

Talk & Discussion

OPEN TO PUBLIC!

Friday, November 22, 2019

18.00 – 20.30

Asien-Afrika-Institut, R. 221

Universität Hamburg

Edmund-Siemers-Alle No.1,

Ost-Flügel (East-Wing)

D-20146 Hamburg

Organizer:

Fachbereich Austronesistik,

Abteilung für Sprachen und

Kulturen Südostasiens

PCINU JERMAN

Asien-Afrika-Institut

“Islam, Women and Pluralism in Indonesia”

Speaker:

Hindun Anisah, M.A.

(Director of Islamic boarding school “Pondok Pesantren Hasyim Asy’ari” in Jepara, Central Java/Indonesia)

Speaker:

Hindun Anisah holds a Master degree in Medical Anthropology from Universiteit van Amsterdam. She obtained her undergraduate degrees in Social and Political Science from the Gadjah Mada University (UGM) and in Islamic Law from the State Institute of Islamic Studies (IAIN), both in Yogyakarta, Central Java. The topics of her research and her various local, national and international talks focus mainly on women, gender equality, Islam, education, plurality, and nationalism in Indonesia. She is currently leading a progressive Islamic boarding school “Pondok Pesantren Hasyim Asy’ari” in Jepara, Central Java.

