

Launching Event

The Philippines in the Austronesian Studies Program

Photos: Pexels

PROGRAM PRESENTATION

STUDENT PROJECT

LECTURE

DISCUSSION

FILIPINO BUFFET

Contact:

Jun-Prof. Dr. Elsa Clavé
elsa.clave@uni-hamburg.de

Registration:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/the-philippines-in-the-austronesian-studies-program-tickets-460654779847>

Saturday 26.11.22
14:00 PM to 19:00 PM

Asia-Afrika Institut
Edmund-Siemers-Allee 1
20146 Hamburg
Raum ESA O 221

TIME	AGENDA
14.00-14.15	Registration
14:15-14.45	Opening and welcoming remarks Prof. Dr. Jan van der Putten, Program Director of Austronesian Studies, Department of Languages and Cultures of Southeast Asia, Universität Hamburg Ms. Lilibeth V. Pono Chargé d'affaires, a.i., Embassy of the Philippines in Germany
14.45-15.00	The Philippines in Austronesian Studies at UHH: An archipelago 'of relations,' people 'in relation' Jun-Prof. Dr. Elsa Clavé, Coordinator of the program, assistant professor of Austronesian Studies, Universität Hamburg
15.00-15.30	The Philippines in the Austronesian speaking world: cross-academic perspectives Adonis Elumbre, Filipino Ph.D. candidate in Austronesian Studies, Universität Hamburg Rangga E. Saputra, Indonesian Ph.D. candidate in Austronesian Studies, Universität Hamburg
15.30-16.00	Filipino language and identity: Student Projects Vincent Wongaiham-Petersen, Lecturer for Filipino at Universität Hamburg Students of Filipino at Universität Hamburg
16.00-16.30	Discussion
16.30-17.00	Coffee & Tea break
17.00-17.45	"First Batch", the story of an artwork on Filipina nurses in Austria. Talk and projection Chelsea Amada Artist and curator Jooniverse Artist and creative director
17.45-18.00	Discussion
18.00-19.00	Filipino buffet

