

Dear people interested in Indonesia, Dear members and friends of the German-Indonesian Society (DIG) Hamburg e.V., please join us in celebrating our birthday in June:

The 43rd birthday of DIG Hamburg e.V. and the birthday of Indonesia's (still) capital, Jakarta. We cordially invite you to a special event at the University of Hamburg to celebrate together what already exists and to look to the future.

Presentation and discussion

Universität Hamburg
DER FORSCHUNG | DER LEHRE | DER BILDUNG

Asien-Afrika-Institut

From the (still) capital Jakarta to the new capital: Nusantara

Learn more about the government move and the planned new capital Nusantara and let's discuss this historic event together.

Speakers and panelists: Ardian Wicaksono, Consul General Hamburg; Dr. Agung Wicaksono (Deputy for Finance and Investment IK Nusantara); Dr. Maximilian von Gerdte

After the official programme, take advantage of the evening to get into conversation with each other and network over small delicacies. Admission: Free

It is a hybrid event, for better planning, please register by e-mail: vorstanddighh@dig-hamburg.de or via the following link: www.dig-hamburg.de/Veranstaltungen/DIGHH-Stammtisch

With kind regards,
The Board of the German-Indonesian Society Hamburg e.V.
