

Contents

Foreword.....	vii
Acknowledgments.....	xiii
Introduction.....	1
Part 1 Ethnicity and Identities
1 Politics of Cross-Border Living in Southern Laos– Central Vietnam.....	31
Vatthana Pholsena
2 Khon Rai Sanchat: Resident Aliens and the Paradox of National Integration in Thailand.....	57
Mukdawan Sakboon, Prasit Leepreecha, and Panadda Boonyasaranai
3 Resettled Lua Communities in Northern Thailand: Between Ethnic Disintegration and National Integration.....	105
Amalia Rossi
4 Language, Culture, and Identity: A Case Study of Diasporic Ethnic Pakistanis in Multilingual Penang.....	153
Shakila Abdul Manan
Part 2 Religion and Identities
5 Transmutations of the Rohingya Movement in the Post-2012 Rakhine State Crisis.....	191
Jacques Leider

6	The Karen Leke Religious Movement in the Thailand-Myanmar Borderland: Deterritorialization and Diversification.....	241
	Kwanchewan Buadaeng
7	The Refreshing Paradoxes of Indonesian Political Islam: Considerations on the Islamist Exception.....	281
	Rémy Madinier
8	Thailand's Muslim Kaleidoscope from the Central Plains to the Far South: Fresh Perspectives from the Sufi Margins.....	317
	Christopher M. Joll
Part 3 Integration and Identities
9	Plural and Separate: Penang's Colonial Experience, 1786–1941.....	361
	Ooi Keat Gin
10	Heritage and Nationalism in the Preah Vihear Dispute.....	405
	Volker Grabowsky
11	Regional Identities and National Integration: Hero Cults in Lan Na.....	449
	Pantipa Chuenchat
	List of Contributors.....	483
	Index.....	489